

Decentralised water supply

Some applications require a larger amount of water. Trunz Water Systems has developed independent and solar powered solutions for the supply of drinking water in remote villages. Depending on the raw water source or the contamination in the raw water, a Trunz soft water system or a brackish water/desalination system with an RO-unit will be installed.

Please see the overview:

Decentralised drinking water & seawater treatment

Decentralised drinking water & seawater treatment with solar direct pump

Installations around the world

