

Treatment of borehole / brackish water at the Alice Springs Solar Center

A solar powered brackish water system provides drinking water for visitors.

The solar tracking system follows the sun in 12 steps

Up to 30 % more power is achieved

The unit treats brackish borehole water to drinking quality